F. Hobbs, Begs, Gen. Samuel Fr Strickland; and Mr. Samuel Smith were appointed a com mittee to draft resolutions expressive of the views of the meeting on the subject of the passage of a National Bankrupt Law, who reported the following, which were adopted.

Resolved, That the loss of the industry of 500,000 citizens is a National-calemity, and that a our opinion it is among the first duties of the present Congress of the United States at their present extra session to repair that loss so fer the contract as charged. Argued this term as it can be done by constitutional legislative

> Mesolved, That the exercise of the constitutional power of Congress to page a General Bankrupt Law would tend in a great degree to repair that loss, that the passage of such a law at the present extra session is demanded by the extensive and irretrievable bankruptoies which pervade the Union, paralyzing individnal effort and retarding our National growth

Resolved. That the foregoing resolutions he gned by the Chairman and Secretary and transmitted to each member of our delegation in Congress, and that they respectively be requested to exert their utimost efforte to effect the passage of a Bankrupt law in such form him by Special Message to recommend to Con grees at the present Extra Session the passage of a Bankrupt Law, and that this resolution givned by the Chairman and Secretary be transmitted by Committee to the President.

The following manied persons were velected a committee to memoralize the Prosident : -Edward Kent, Abner Taylor, James Crosby, George W. Bre-n, Ovo. W. Pickering, John Fisk. Thornton McGaw, Gorham L. Boynton, Samuel P. Strickland. On motion, the doings of this meeting be signed by the President and Secretary, and

CARD.

When one of the Clergymen of a city publish. es in a public paper, offder bir own proper sig. hature, an article which is understood to implicate the inspiration of the Bible, it would seem incombent on other clergymen of the same community, candidly to ask an explanation, and propriety would seem to require that the answer should be communicated through the same channel, in which the original article appeared. If, however, Mr. H. Thinks such an explanation more appropriate to a religious paper, the columns of the Zion's Advocate at Portland are at his service for that purpose,----

THE ARGUMENT IN A NUTSHELL. The Richmond Whig gives a good argument in a few words .- It says, .- Congress her the power to establish a Bank in the District so said Van Buren in his letter to Sherod Willisins and ofter the expiration of ten years, was adopted. so Ritchie and all the rest have said. It may insert a clause in the charter granting the privilege to establish branches any where, with as much right as it can insert any other clange.
The action on the part of Congress then is comPilutional. Any State may permit a bank thus prileged to losate a branch within its limits. The action of the States then is also enpetitutional. These two ernstitutional mete, it is contended. a hen conjoined, make an nuconstitutional one. This is " -- afuna ingin '
